Higher Yellow Cause and Effect Essay

Many People grow up being dissatisfied with themselves, whether it is because of their skin color, size and shape of body, religion, sexual orientation, or even economic status. People who are dissatisfied with themselves could have many problems, for instance they could be so unhappy the way they are that it could cause them to not be as social as a person who is happy with themselves, and that could even cause them to be suicidal. The people who don't like the way they are will be less successful in life than that of a person who is satisfied with how they are. They are more likely to be less successful do to the fact that person will be spending too much time worrying about how they can improve themselves or what others think of them. The biggest dissatisfaction that causes alot people to be not as successful as they should be would have to be because of skin color. It is a fact that a lot of people of different races think that they wouldn't get a job over a person of another race due to past histories. The skin color problem even affects the way some do in school. With people worrying so much about what color skin they have, it is affecting the future that they should have or are capable of having. This effect is even having a negative impact with the remaining population due to the fact it is causing
